

CONCEPT PLAN

The Phase 1 Concept Plan shows a preliminary trail alignment on City owned land through existing vegetation. The road crossing at Millard requires some safety measures which may include asphalt painting and crossing signage. The drainage crossing will be designed to accommodate a maintenance vehicle and may require some fill placement to provide adequate clearance over the channel. At the south end, small sections of stairs with an accompanying bike rail may be required to connect the trail up the slope at Beachwood Road.