The City of Courtenay is proposing an amendment to Zoning Bylaw No. 2500, 2007 in order to make the bylaw consistent with the Agricultural Land Commission regulations and the Agricultural Minister's Bylaw Standard on Medical Marihuana Production Facilities. The proposed amendment will permit Medical Marihuana Production Facilities on properties within the Agricultural Land Reserve with a minimum setback of 30 metres from all property lines.

Get more information:

View a copy of the proposed bylaw and relevant documents at City Hall from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm Monday through Friday, excluding holidays, until the public hearing.

To provide your feedback, send written submissions prior to the public hearing. You are also welcome to speak at the public hearing.
